

EDGEFIELD COUNTY EMS “ANNOUCES”

CPR CLASSES FOR THE SUMMER

CPR for Family and Friends will be taught at the Edgefield County Emergency Services base located at 35 Starr Road, Edgefield, South Carolina.

There is no charge for the class. This is a basic course on CPR that is suggested for ages 12 years and up. For teenagers that will be baby sitting younger siblings this summer this would be an excellent class on how to prevent sudden infant death syndrome, injuries, and choking. This class will also teach how to notice the warning signs of a heart attack, stroke, cardiac arrest, and choking. It teaches how to remove an obstruction in the airway of adult victims, infant and child victims.

With the knowledge and skills you will learn in one of these courses, you may save the life of a loved one, a friend, or a neighbor.

If YOU want to know what to do in a life-threatening emergency for Family and Friends this course is for you.

This course is being offered on the following dates and time:

June 9, 2009 - 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
June 11, 2009 - 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.
